20 Charging Party hereby joins in the Motion of Counsel for General Counsel for Default
21 Judgment.

22 The Charging Party requests the following remedies:

23 1. That any notice be posted by the Respondent for the time period between when the 24 unfair labor practice charges began and when the notice is posted. 60 days is not long enough.

25 2. The Respondent should be required to mail the Board's Notice and the Board's 26 Decision to all employees. Mailing the notice to them is insufficient since they are entitled to 27 see the Board's Decision even if it is a default judgment.

28 3. The Notice should be mailed to all employees who worked for the period of time during which the unfair labor practice began until the Notice is posted or mailed. The General Counsel only suggests that mailing of the Notice is required to the 3 discriminatees.

1 For these reasons the Motion for Default Judgment should be granted with the appropriate
2 remedies as requested above.
